Ms. Vasiliki Lagogiannis was born and raised in Kalamata, Greece. Vasiliki graduated with a Bachelor’s in Early Childhood Education at the University of Patras in 2012 and a Master’s in Special Education at American International College in 2019. Vasiliki has been a public school educator since 2015 and she currently teaches English as a Second Language within the Peabody Public School system. She is a yearly attendee at the Massachusetts Association of Teachers of Speakers of Other Languages (MATSOL) Professional Conference. Before joining the faculty at Omiros Greek school, Vasiliki taught various levels of students at St. Vasilios and Assumption of the Virgin Mary, MA. Vasiliki is a dynamic and ambitious educator devoted to empowering the lives of her students, by sharing her acquired knowledge, talents and passion.

Mrs. Anastasia Mousouli was born in Athens and raised in Kalamata, Volos, Larisa and Athens, Greece, as her father served as a pilot in the Hellenic Air Force. Her passion for the Greek Letters and Music led her to obtain degrees in both fields: She holds a Bachelor’s degree in Primary Education from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, as well as Master’s degrees in Flute Performance and Music Education from the Conservatoire Royal de Mons in Belgium, and the Northwestern University in Chicago respectively. As diversified educator, Mrs. Mousouli has taught students of all different levels and age groups in a multitude of educational settings, such as the International School of Brussels, The Hellenic American Academy in Deerfield, IL, The Saint George Greek Orthodox School in Chicago etc. She is currently employed by the Somerville Public Schools, and is also faculty of the City Music Programs of Berklee College of Music. Mrs. Mousouli has served repeatedly as an examiner in the Ellinomatheia exams in Chicago.
Georgia Nikolakakos
Teacher

Ms. Georgia Nikolakakos was born and raised on the island of Crete. She holds a degree in Accounting and Marketing from the First Institute of Vocational Training in Heraklion, Crete. During her studies she was working as an after school activity teacher in a private primary school for five years. Ms. Georgia moved to Boston, MA seven years ago. During her staying here, she attended a private college where she got her second degree in Hospital Sterilization Technician. She had been a Greek Language Teacher for the pre-K class at the Annunciation Cathedral Greek School in Brookline, MA.